Introduction

Measure 11 was passed by the voters in 1994 when violent crime committed by both juveniles (and adults) was skyrocketing. Most citizens were extremely alarmed by the number of violent crimes committed in their communities and the lack of real consequences for those who committed these crimes. Since the passage of Measure 11, violent crime has dropped dramatically. According to the Oregon Legislative Fiscal Office, "from 1995 to 2009 Oregon's violent crime rate dropped 51%, the second largest drop of all states". (Budget Information Report, February 2001, page 7)

Measure 11 originally covered 20 violent crimes but has expanded slightly by the legislature since then. And in 1997, with the support of District Attorneys and victims of crime, the legislature passed Senate Bill (SB) 1049 which reduced the sentence for many second degree crimes.

Measure 11, particularly as it applies to juveniles, has been the subject of vigorous and spirited debate. There is much misunderstanding about the type of offenders, and crimes which are subject to the sentences under Measure 11. One of the most accurate way to assess its application and its effects is to examine the cases and defendants sentenced under Measure 11. It is to that end that this report has been prepared. We hope it is a continuous source of accurate and meaningful information to all policy makers who wish to educate themselves about Measure 11.

On March 1, 2016, the Oregon District Attorney's Association submitted a written request to both the Oregon Youth Authority and the Oregon Department of Corrections for a current list of all juveniles in custody for Measure 11 crimes in Oregon. We received the list March 14, 2016 and distributed to the District Attorneys in all 36 Oregon counties. The District Attorneys gathered factual information about each defendant, and the crimes they committed, as well as information on charges filed, pleas entered, trials conducted and the sentences imposed. This list is a comprehensive compilation of the factual information and is available for review by one and all.

The 20 crimes originally included under Measure 11 were the most serious kinds of violent offenses including: Aggravated Murder, Murder, and Manslaughter, Rape, Sodomy, Unlawful Sexual Penetration with a Foreign Object, Robbery and Assault in the first and second degree, as well as Sex Abuse in the first degree. Measure 11 is applicable adults and juveniles between the ages of 15-17. Juveniles, 14 and younger, who commit these extremely violent crimes remain in the juvenile system unless a court determines otherwise, which rarely, if ever, occurs.

Measure 11 was specifically designed to apply to older juveniles who committed violent crimes and received punishments that were either extremely lenient or non-existent prior to the passage of the Measure. There were many famous cases illustrating this problem, including one of the most infamous involving a 17 year old named Michelle Gates who murdered two small children in her care. The court in her cases refused to "remand" her to adult court and she was "adjudicated" in juvenile court. She went virtually unpunished for her horrible crimes and entered adulthood a free person.

Today Measure 11 remains widely supported by the general public because it delivers consistent, proportional punishment for offenders and provides justice to victims of these terrible crimes and to the community at large.

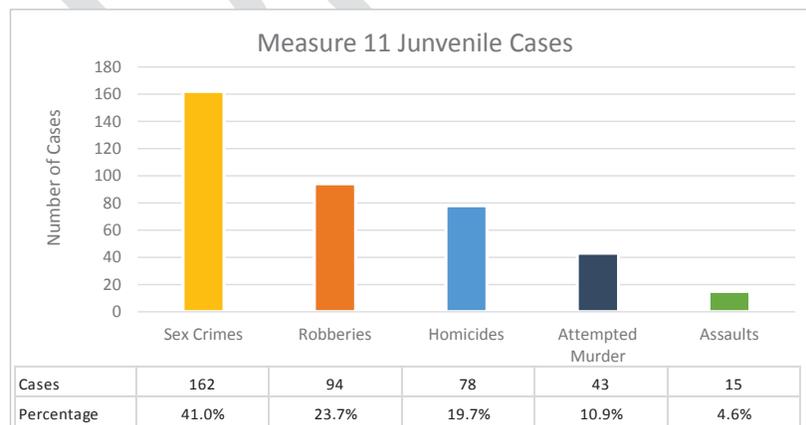

The rest of this report outlines some of the general information in this list. But we encourage interested readers to view the whole list.

I. Summary of Cases by Type

The Oregon Youth Authority (OYA) and the Oregon Department of Corrections (DOC) reported that there were 423 named juveniles in custody with OYA on March 1, 2016. However, upon closer examination we discovered there were 28 names erroneously included on the list. Some had not been prosecuted as juveniles, while others were simply not Measure 11 cases. Those 28 cases remain on the list for complete transparency, but they are not included in this analysis.

There are 395 juveniles on the list who are included in this narrative and subject to this analysis. The cases on the list are listed alphabetically by county for ease of review. However, the analysis provided herein is statewide.

Of the 395 cases, they break down as follows:

There were two cases that were not clearly defined on the list and one case of Kidnapping in the First Degree. Further analysis of each crime type will be discussed below.

II. Profile of Case Types

78 cases in which the charged offense was Homicide, of which more than 82% were charged with murder:

III. Criminal Case Resolutions

Cases were resolved through plea negotiations or trial. This list only contains juveniles who were convicted of a Measure 11 crime. If a defendant's charge or charges were reduced to a lesser charge outside of Measure 11, their name would not appear on this list. There is no feasible way to determine how many of these kinds of cases there were since they are not included in the list from OYA/DOC.

IV. Victims

While the advocates for reducing sentences in Measure 11 often focus on the age of the offenders (15-17), there is virtually nothing mentioned about the age or vulnerability of the victims who suffered as a result of the offenders' violent crimes. For example, nearly 82% of all sex crime victims of these crimes were 12 years or younger at the time the crime was committed and more than 50 victims were 6 years or younger.

Conclusion

The information on this list clearly demonstrates the seriousness of the crimes committed, as well as the thoughtful and moderate manner in which prosecutors in Oregon have applied the law to the facts in each of these cases. We encourage all readers to carefully review the factual summaries of these cases and criminal histories of these offenders.

It is important to remember that without Measure 11 and prior to 1995, virtually all of these offenders would have remained in the juvenile system with no significant consequences for their behavior. Measure 11 continues to provide consistent, proportionate consequences for serious criminal behavior and a measure of justice for the victims of these terrible crimes.

In a different case that occurred prior to defendant's 18th birthday, but which was prosecuted after his 18th birthday, and simultaneously with the case involving the 10 year old cousin referred to above, defendant was convicted of multiple counts involving an 11-year-old girl with whom he was residing, involving sodomy and fondling. They are walking around downtown Milwaukie, generally behaving in a thuggish fashion. They get into a war of words with another group of people that includes the two young women who were the assault victims. There is some threatening on the part of the defendants related to shooting the group of people. One incident of touching and rape with some proof of penetration, although the intercourse was unsuccessful because it was painful for her.

Murder (x 6), Murder, Robbery I, Burglary I	Murder Robbery I	961155/07 961155/08	163115 164415	DOC		There was minimal plea negotiation. The Defendant waived jury trial in exchange for the State not seeking life without parole. The case was tried and the judge found defendant guilty of Agg. Murder (2 counts), Murder, Robbery I, Burglary I. On appeal, the Agg. Murders were reversed for new trial, all others were affirmed. On re-sentencing the State declined to re-try the Agg. Murders and went to sentencing on the Murder, Robbery, and Burglary convictions. Defendant was given Life in Prison, parole possible after a minimum of 25 years. After further appeal the defendant was re-sentenced and all other cases merged so that only the Murder sentence remains.	Defendant (age 16 1/2) was accused of murdering 89 y.o. Virgil Crist. Crist was beaten with a blunt instrument and also stabbed multiple times. Crist's wallet and money were stolen. At trial, defendant tried to show that he had accomplices that actually committed the killing, but there was scant evidence of that being the case. There was enough, however, for the appellate courts to reverse for a new trial on Agg. Murder. It should be noted that defendant committed several more crimes the night of the Crist Murder (a Burglary I and a Robbery I at another location, a couple of hours before the Crist Murder). These other crimes were not charged and the state elected to try only the Crist cases.

Defendant was placed on supervised probation with the Coos County Juvenile Department on 7/14/08 for Unlawful Entry into a Motor Vehicle. While on supervised probation, he committed the new crimes of Harassment (12/23/08) and Sexual Harassment (7/13/09). He was still on probation for these three crimes when he committed the other crimes listed.	The defendant and two adult co-defendants decided to commit a home invasion robbery to get money. They targeted the home of an elderly female. The defendant and one adult co-defendant used a baby to con the 72 y.o. woman to open her door and let them inside. The second adult co-defendant then forced his way in. The three defendants beat the woman, tied her up with duct tape, threatened to shoot her, and stole personal property from her, including her gun and the rings on her fingers. The baby is the victim of one of the Reckless Endangering charges. The baby didn't belong to any of the defendants – they just borrowed him for purposes of their crime.
JOHNSTON, XAVIER	19555920	09/03/94	17.00	COOS	06/01/12	12/30/13	12/31/13		RAPE I	13CR1746/01	163375	DOC		Mr. Johnson was 17 YOA at the time he committed the offense. However, he was 19 YOA at the time the crime was reported and he was arrested, indicted, and convicted. According to caselaw in the state of Oregon, as a general rule, if a person is over 18 when he or she is charged with a criminal offense, that person will be tried as an adult. This is true even if the person was under the age of 18 when he or she committed the acts that gave rise to the charge. This case was not in adult court due to the charges being Measure 11 offenses, it was due to his age at the time he was charged with the offense. I do not believe he served any time in a YCF, nor do I think he was eligible to do so under the circumstances. Therefore, he should not be considered a Measure 11 "youth."

He was 17 YOA at the time he committed the offenses and 18 YOA at the time of sentencing. He was sentenced on 8/19/98 to 70 months + 20 months + 28 months = 118 months = 9 years 10 months. Without good time, he would have been released from custody approximately June 2008. He was given 36 months pps. So, the case should have ended on or before June 2011. On 3/21/12, he was convicted of Assault II and UUW. He committed the crimes when he was 31 YOA. According to this spread sheet, he was admitted (I'm assuming to the prison system) on 3/22/12. This would coincide with his convictions for Assault II and UUW in 2012, not his Robbery II conviction from 1998.

State offered 90 months concurrent, and 70 months consecutive, respectively, for a total of 100 months. Defendant accepted plea offer.	Alex Camacho was a resident of Rimrock Trails Adolescent Treatment Center located in Prineville. On May 5, 2007, Alex Camacho and his codefendant Michael Gilligan, along with 8 other young men, went on a planned hike to Steins Pillar. An employee of Rimrock Trails drove the van for the activity. After the hike, all of the residents ate lunch near the van and discussed a plan to attack the driver and steal the van. On the way back to Rimrock, Camacho sitting directly behind the driver, started choking him as he was turning onto the highway back to Prineville. At the same time, Michael Gilligan, sitting next to Camacho, began punching the driver in the face. Just before the attack the van was traveling between 15 to 40 mph. When the attack started, the van slowed down and while it was still moving, Gilligan and Camacho threw the driver out onto the highway. He landed in the opposite lane and had to get up to avoid oncoming traffic. After Gilligan and Camacho threw the driver out of the van, Camacho got into the driver's seat. Two boys left the van through the side door. Another boy tried to escape by crawling out the back door of the van. As the boy left the van, Camacho put the van in reverse, running him over. Camacho then drove forward and ran him over again. Camacho started driving towards Prineville. He stopped the van and the rest of the boys left and called police officers.

N.B. back in July. They have been friends since 3rd grade and D convinced her to sneak out of the house to watch a movie with him. D texted that he was horny, but V texted to him that she would not have sex with him. D met V on his bike and they walked together a short distance until D came onto V and started taking her clothes off. She resisted, but could not get away from D. Both Vs report D is very strong, is a wrestler, a football player, and rugby player. D pulls her pants down and forces his penis inside her. V is able to get away and runs home. D texts her saying he was sorry, he thought she wanted it. V reports right away and SANE done. D is contacted and claims consent. D says V texted him that she wanted to have sex and sent him naked photos of herself. D's phone is seized and LE find zero evidence to support D's claims.

Defendant was charged with 2 counts of Sodomy I (Jessica's Law), 5 counts Sex Abuse I for same victim, and also for conduct when 17 or 18 y.o. Defendant was also charged with 2 counts of Sodomy II and one count of Sex Abuse I, for conduct when 17 and older, against the second victim. Plea offer: Plead to counts 1,2,8, and 10 and State caps recommendation at 600 months. Defendant can argue for 300 months. Defendant pled to indictment and argued for departure out of Jessica's Law. Defendant received 375 months DOC.	Defendant repeatedly had his 5 y.o. half-sister orally sodomize him. Defendant also repeatedly had genital contact with her, contacted her genitals with his hands, and caused victim to masturbate him with her hands. Defendant acknowledged initiating his sister to sexual activity until she began to initiate contact herself. When defendant was 12-13 y.o. he began offending his 7 y.o. brother by introducing him to mutual masturbation. Defendant stopped abusing his brother for a period of time, then began abusing him again when defendant was 16 y.o. During this second period of abuse, defendant's sexual abuse included oral sodomy, genital contact, and attempt. anal sodomy. Defendant would use pornography to get ideas about what to do to his brother. Defendant's behavior got increasingly coercive to point where younger brother would wait outside for parents to come home, so defendant would not offend him while they were gone. Defendant would tell younger brother that they would both get into trouble for their activity. In addition to these two victims, defendant also offended a third sibling. Defendant submitted a psycho-sexual exam to the court which assessed defendant as a moderate risk of re-offense, that he has reduced concern for others, sexual preoccupation, and cognitive distortions, which allow him to deny harming the victims.

Defendant is potentially able to serve entire sentence at a youth facility.	Defendant is a house guest of victim #1's family. While staying there, defendant offends victim #1 and victim #2, they are 4 and 5 y.o. Defendant orally sodomized each child and had each child orally sodomize him. Defendant admits this conduct. One victim described oral/anal conduct but is not able to provide details. Victim's disclosures were very limited and unclear extent of abuse due to their ages. Abuse comes to light when victims are found sexually acting out with one another. Defendant admits oral sodomy but denies anal contact. Defendant was 15 y.o. at the time and he is lower functioning. Defendant is also prior sexual abuse victim. Received information that defendant was a moderate risk to reoffend.

Defendant was sentenced to 180 months.	3 gang members from Canby decided to drive by Legion Park in Woodburn. Earlier they had seen some Woodburn people they thought were in a rival gang, swimming in a park in Canby. They were in effect driving past Legion Park to return the "insult" and to "show their colors." Defendant was a passenger and there was a driver and 1 other person in the car. The car drove past 5-6 young Hispanic males on foot. The car drove around and passed these persons 3 times. They exchanged gang signs. On the third circle, defendant stuck a handgun out the window and began firing shots. Defendant shot one person in the head and another in the neck. One young victim had nothing to do with the other persons and was simply going outside to look for his cat. He suffered a severe traumatic brain injury. The other person was shot in the neck and survived. The defendant's family posted $8,000 bail. The defendant's family took all their children out of school and fled to Texas with the defendant. The State of Oregon, the US Attorney's office, the FBI, and the Texas Rangers made ongoing efforts to find and return the defendant on a Governor's warrant. These efforts were frustratingly unsuccessful, even after defendant was arrested on international drug smuggling charges. Defendant returned to Oregon 12 years after the crime and turned himself in. At a jury trial he presented perjured testimony and was convicted on both counts.

Defendant repeatedly tricked victim into playing truth or dare and would maneuver her into situations where he could get access to her sexually. In addition to trickery, defendant also used some degree of coercion to gain her complicity. In this context, defendant repeatedly kissed on the victim, fondled her breasts and vagina, and ultimately also placed his penis in her vagina on 2 separate occasions. In addition to the charged victim, defendant also attempted to engage in sexual contact with another 6 y.o. cousin. Defendant lay on top of her while she was sleeping and tried to kiss her. Defendant would also try to engage her in sexual contact during truth or dare, like he had her sister, but she refused. She reported that defendant had repeatedly tried to touch her sexually but she didn't allow it. The 6 y.o. also indicated that she had witnessed the defendant's abuse of her sister, as did friends of the defendant.

Use Weapon (x 4)	Robbery I	10C42911/01	164415	DOC		Defendant was given a BM 11 offer two days after grand jury, and defense counsel was advised that State would not agree to come out of BM 11. Defendant was sentenced to 90 months.	This defendant had arranged with the victim to come to victim's house and "buy" marijuana. When defendant arrived, he had a friend with him who came into the residence as well. When the marijuana was out in the open, defendant grabbed the bag of marijuana, at which point, co-defendant #1 pointed a gun directly at victim #1's head, and co-defendant #2 pointed a gun at victim #2's throat. They took the marijuana and ran. The evidence appeared to show that this defendant came up with the idea and brought the others along. Co-defendants then barricaded themselves into an apartment. A search warrant revealed guns used.

State's offer was for the defendant to plead guilty to count 1 (300 months under Jessica's Law). Defendant had a jury trial and was found guilty of all 4 counts. Sentence was 200 months (Counts 1 & 2 ran consecutive, the rest ran concurrently). Couldn't prove that defendant was 18 y.o. at the time of crime so Jessica's Law didn't apply.	Defendant is 18-19 y.o., and victim is 10-11 y.o. Defendant is victim's uncle. Victim has twin uncles. Both uncles were up from Mexico looking for work, and were staying with the victim's family. When victim's mom was at work or asleep, defendant and his brother would take turns sneaking into victim's room and digitally penetrating and raping victim. Victim became a drug addict and runaway. Defendant denied. Brother is still at large on warrants. Defendant was likely an adult during the acts charged and was 24 y.o. at the time of disposition.

Use of a Weapon, and Manslaughter I. Defendant pled guilty to 3 additional charges and both counts of Murder were dismissed. Total sentence was 247 months, instead of 300 month sentence with Murder charges.	Defendant was 15 y.o. at time of crime. She didn't live at home. She associated with people involved in criminal activity, including ID theft and poss. of stolen weapons obtained by burglary. A stolen credit card that defendant wanted to go to one of her friends was stolen by an acquaintance, Salvador Rovaledo-Vivares, the murder victim. Defendant and her boyfriend, a co-defendant, lured victim into defendant's bedroom under the guise of a discussion about illegal drug activity. Defendant produced a gun she had received earlier from a batch of stolen weapons and threatened victim with it. She demanded money and the stolen credit card. Victim tried to laugh it off and said "little girls shouldn't play with guns." Defendant shot victim in head, killing him. Sex. Penetration I. Defendant pled guilty to Sex Abuse I and the State dismissed Unlaw. Sex. Penetration. Due to provability problems, and Defendant being 18 and 8 days old when incident occurred, and defendant being lower functioning, the State stipulated to amending the incident to a date range when he was 17 y.o., allowing him to serve his BM 11 sentence at OYA. Defendant was sentenced August 2013. However, in October 2013 OYA refused admittance because their review of the reports suggests defendant committed the act when he was 18 y.o. Case is now pending to determine if defendant can withdraw his plea. Sentence: 75 months.	Defendant is 18 y.o. and 8 days, victim is a 4 y.o. family friend. She comes in from a fort outside, adjusting her underwear, saying D put "it" in her butt and gave her a fruit pie to not say anything. Defendant denies anything happening, but then admits his DNA may be in her underwear because he was helping victim wipe herself after she "went pee" in the fort. Fruit pie wrapper also found in the fort. Law enforcement finds a shot glass full of dish soap (lubricant) in the fort. Victim cannot reach where shot glasses are stored. However, 4 y.o. is barely competent so there are numerous evidentiary concerns regarding ability to prove.

State capped recommendation at 100 months and defendant agreed to a floor (under BM 11) of 75 months. Defendant received 75 months (each count was run concurrently to the other).	Defendant began a relationship with victim #1, who had some learning disabilities and developmental delay. Victim liked defendant and initially agreed to contact including kissing. Defendant then began to try to touch her genitals and she protested. He continued touching her, despite her attempts to pull his hand out of her pants, including twisting his fingers. Victim described contact culminating in him removing her pants, despite her efforts to pull them up, and forcibly having intercourse with her. Victim is so stressed that she is unable to come to sentencing. Within weeks of this contact, defendant who had been having sexual intercourse with victim #2 since she was 11 y.o., took her into a port-a-potty, and pulled her pants down while she attempted to stop him. Victim #2 tried to push him off of her, but was unable to do so. Instead defendant forcibly put his penis in her vagina. When he finished, defendant laughed at her. Defendant offered her drugs to get her not to report. Victim did not want defendant to go to jail.

Defendant pled guilty to Robbery I (90 months) and Assault II (70 months, consecutive to 08C40416). Total of 160 months.	Defendant asks victim (a stranger) to give her a ride from Salem to Woodburn. They arrive in Woodburn and defendant pulls out a gun, chambers a round, and tells him to get out of the car. Defendant then hits victim in the head with a gun saying "I'm with the mafia, get out of the car." Defendant hits him again in the head with gun, causing him to bleed, and puts the barrel of the gun to his neck and steals car. Less than 3 weeks later and before arrest, a different victim sees defendant hitchhiking and picks her up (because it is Christmas and a cold day). Defendant directs him to a parking lot and when they arrive she pulls out a gun, and gives a signal for her gang to join them. Two cars, each with 4 male occupants, pull up to victim's car. Defendant pulled out duct tape and motioned for victim to put hands together. Victim instead stepped on the gas and drove to Circle K. While driving victim had to elbow defendant in the head several times to keep defendant from pointing the gun at him. He then learned that the second armed robbery occurred at approximately 1910 hours at Grant Park near NE 36th Avenue and NE Braze Court in Portland, Oregon involving victim Hayden Wilson. Detective Posey learned from both victims that the defendant was using a fake Facebook profile with the name of "Karl Stevens" to send messages and to set up meetings with the victims on the "Sneakerheads Portland" group page with the premise of purchasing their Air Jordan basketball shoes; that the defendant then met up with the victims at two separate locations and robbed them with what the victims describe as a silver colored revolver handgun that the defendant had pulled out of his pocket/waistband. While investigating the robberies above Detective Posey learned that later on June 8, 2015 at approximately 1315 hours at Grant High School, the defendant initiated an armed robbery involving victim Ramsey Saleem. Detective Posey learned from the victim that the defendant reached into his belt-line and pulled out a "silver revolver;" that the defendant then opened the cylinder and spun it around showing the victim that the gun was loaded; the defendant then pointed the gun at the victim and told the victim to give him all of his money. Two females present told officer Hansen the following: Wendy Medina said she was in the vehicle with Omar Escobar, who was driving, when they left a party in Troutdale. In the parking lot a Chrysler 300 bumped their car and Omar got into an argument with the other driver. Negotiations centered around the length of the DOC sentence and the possibility of second look. The younger, less culpable co-defendant, Mr. Miller, received a 50 month DOC sentence, with no eligibility for second look. Mr. Heath had two JSs with Judge Bergstrom. The state offered 120 months on the Att Agg Murder with concurrent sentences on the two Rob I convictions. Defendant attempted to negotiate that down but eventually accepted the offer.	On December 26, 2014 at approximately 6 pm Gabriel Fields and Mario Hoffman reported they had been robbed at gunpoint near SE Flavel St and SE 82nd Ave. Portland Police Officer Jeromie Palaoro responded and spoke to both Hoffman and Fields who reported they were walking on SE Flavel when they observed two suspects, later identified as Jovan Heath and Michael Miller, approaching them. Fields and Hoffman said Heath and Miller got within a few feet of them and said, "Any money on you?" Fields and Hoffman said Heath then pulled a gun out of his waistband. Fields and Hoffman said they took off running and then heard the sound of two gun shots. Fields said he believed a white van, which he was near, was struck with a bullet. Fields and Hoffman reported they saw Heath and Miller earlier in the evening at a shop called Top to Bottom store. While on scene, Officer Palaoro was approached by Gary Taylor. Taylor said he was standing outside his nearby residence and was approached by two individuals. Taylor could not identify the individuals, but said one of the individuals, who he described as Hispanic and wearing a dark hoodie and dark pants, approached him, took a black semi-auto handgun from his waistband and then "racked" the gun to chamber a round. Taylor said this individual was "talking all kinds of crazy shit" and then walked away. Taylor said he observed both individuals walk off eastbound on SE Flavel St. and then approach two more subjects. Taylor said he saw the subjects running and heard two shots fired. Two spent 9 mm shells and a 9 mm round were recovered at the scene. A nearby van was struck through the front windshield. At approximately 10:00 pm on December 26th, Portland Police Officer Baldwin responded to the area of SE 97th and Foster Rd regarding an armed robbery. Upon arrival, Officer Baldwin spoke to Devin Bean, Mara Lockard and Alexander Luster-Byers who reported they were followed by two individuals, later identified as Heath and Miller, after exiting a Max platform. Bean, Lockard and Luster-Byers reported they were approached by Heath and Miller and Heath said to empty their pockets and then pulled a black gun from his pocket and brought back the slide as if to charge a round in the barrel. Luster-Byers said Heath then pointed the gun at Luster-Byer's chest. Lockard said she feared for her friends and turned over her wallet to Heath, who then gave the wallet to Miller. Miller and Heath then ran off. Near the same time, an additional robbery was reported near the Foster Max Station. Rasheed Henderson said he was walking up the ramp when two males approached and said "Give me your shit." Henderson said one pulled a gun on him and the other pulled a knife. Henderson said he gave them his phone, watch and a Nike backpack with orange lettering which says "NEYMAR." At approximately, 12:30 am Portland Police responded to an attempted car prowl at 112th and Powell and spoke to Tiffany Donovan who said she drove up to her parking space and saw an individual, later identified as Heath, approaching her. Donovan said she locked her car door and Heath pulled a gun and tried to get in, but was prevented by her door being locked and left. Shortly thereafter, Portland Police Officer Sherise Hobbs observed a person matching the description of the carjacker suspect at a nearby bus stop, talking to someone in a white Ford Taurus. The occupants of the vehicle and the two individuals nearby were stopped. The driver of the vehicle, George Clements, said he was driving down the street when he saw his brothers Jovan Heath and Michael Miller, who got a ride from Mr. Clements. The pistol used in the robberies was found inside Mr. Clement's vehicle.

That on March 26, 2015, at approximately 6:00 pm, Gresham Police Officer Mike Webb responded to a handgun robbery at 665 NE 178th Ave, Gresham, Multnomah County, OR. Upon arrival, Officer Webb spoke to Kierian Martorana (Victim). Victim told Officer Webb that on this date, he arranged a meeting to sell some marijuana. Victim said the sale was prearranged through a female he knew from school and was to occur at 178th Ave and NE Gilsan Street. Victim said he parked his vehicle near the designated intersection and two males, later identified as Tamarjay Polk and Derrick Clark, got into his car. Victim said the male who climbed into the front seat was approximately nineteen years old, black, six feet two inches, short hair and wearing grey and red clothing. Victim said the second male, who got into the backseat, was a black male, approximately nineteen years old, five feet eight inches tall, with long braided hair, wearing black and red clothing and a full brimmed bucket hat. Victim said after some small talk, the male seated in the front seat asked, "Is that everything you go in the bag." Victim said based on that question, he knew he was going to be robbed. Victim said the male in the front seat pulled a gun out of his pants and pointed it at Victim. Victim said the gun was a black semi-automatic handgun. Victim said he turned and saw the male in the backseat was also pointing a gun at him. Victim said that gun was silver. Victim said the front seat male told him, "Hand me the bag, don't make any movement and you will be fine." Victim said he handed over his bag, which he described as a black and grey Burton brand backpack. Victim said he had approximately four ounces of marijuana in his backpack which he valued at $400. Officer Webb did an area check, but could not locate the two suspect males. At approximately 11:30 pm, Officer Webb was leaving the Gresham Police Rockwood Office on 675 NE 181st Ave, when he observed two males walking who matched the description of the suspects in the above robbery. Officer Webb observed one male, Clark, was approximately six feet two inches tall, wearing a full brimmed bucket hat and a gray backpack. Officer Webb observed the second male, Polk, was about 5 feet eight inches tall wearing a black hooded sweatshirt. Officer Webb observed Clark and Polk walk to NE 181st Ave and then cross the street against a solid red hand (indicating do not walk), which is a violation of ORS 814.020 Pedestrian Failure to Obey a Traffic Control Device. Officer Webb made contact with Polk and Clark, who both consented to a search for weapons. Clark initially denied having a weapon, but during the search he admitted, "I have a little fake one in my backpack." Clark consented to a search of the backpack, which was a black and grey Burton backpack, and inside was a silver derringer style handgun and several jars full of marijuana. Officer Webb safety checked the silver gun and discovered two .22 rounds in the chamber. Officer Webb searched Polk and located a gun inside his pants, which Officer Webb determined to be a black semiautomatic .380 caliber handgun with one round in the chamber. After being Mirandized and acknowledging he understood his rights, Clark admitted to robbing Victim and brandishing a gun during the robbery.

MULARKY, JOHN	13221201	08/24/82	16.00	TILL	03/14/99	12/06/99	10/23/12		ARSON I	991094/01	164325	DOC		Mularky on the other hand was real trouble in custody. Pre-trial, he was implicated in a foiled jail break w/ two murderers that involved plans to take a CO hostage. Mularky had surreptitiously made himself a shank. That incident dynamited an Arson plea on the brink of trial. He was sent to DOC on this Arson and spent his time in Seg. He has continued his criminal behavior in our community.	Mularky used knowledge from his nocturnal prowls to gather 5-10 gallons of stolen fuel from various unlocked garden sheds around town. Accompanied by Honts, who I recall helped haul the gas, Mularky entered the rear of "Little Mexico" late in the evening and poured fuel all over the first floor hallway and lit it! The stairs were instantly ablaze and there was intense smoke upstairs. At the time there were 27 people home, jammed into the fairly small, wooden, two story building. "Little Mexico" was classic balloon frame construction from early last century, w/ no firestops in the walls or fire suppression system. Astonishingly, everyone got out. The only injury was a sprained ankle from jumping and some smoke inhalation. The only non-Hispanic occupant was a woman resident in her late 30s who got lost in the smoke and was rescued by some of the young men as they too escaped. The crime was solved when Honts came forward to confess. When contacted early on during the investigation, Mularky had fingered a 19-20 year old man named Glover as being the arsonist. Glover was tailor made for the frame, he'd been running his mouth about the issue earlier in front of other witnesses and I believe arson was discussed. Honts couldn't deal w/ the guilt of her crime and the thought that the basically innocent Glover would go down for it.

Defendant and the two acquaintances exited the vehicle and pinned the victim against the fence. He planned the robbery in advance. On the night of the robbery, he put a change of clothes in a bag and checked the gun to make sure it was loaded with a round in the chamber, and that the safety was off. He walked to Eastside Market, intending to rob that store, but it was closed. He wanted to shoot up the house of a person he declined to name, but there were too many people so he decided to walk to 7-11. He walked into 7-11, pointed the loaded gun at the clerk, and demanded the clerk "put the money in the bag." After getting the money ($726.93), he fled on foot, dropping the magazine to the gun in the parking lot (this was recovered by police). He hid and changed clothes to avoid detection. Defendant told detectives he has carried a gun in the past, and has been involved with criminal activity. He also stated that if the clerk did not hand over the money or if he would have been cornered by someone, he would have "gone Navy Seal" which he explained as being two shots to the heart and one shot to the head. He wanted the money to buy a watch. The Defendant admitted he had made a poor choice, but thought he could get away with it.

He certainly would have been convicted of Rob 1 and been sentenced to at least 90 months. We offered 70 months w/ D to plead to Rob 2 in one case and Kidnap 2 in the other. 8 counts dismissed. Offer took into account D's age, relatively minor juvenile history and the fact that V wanted D to be treated leniently and not receive a long prison term. This was a very unusual and very aggravated case.	This case involves two separate robberies of same convenience store and of the same victim twice within one week. Prosecuted as two separate cases. On 8/4/2105 D goes to Plaid Pantry and demands money of clerk. V refuses and D brutally beats the V by kicking and hitting him. He later admits he "beat the shit out of the V". D returns to store about a week later on 8/12/15 and robs and terrorizes the same V again. This time D brings a co-D who is carrying a small bat. D later admitted that he got a "rush" out of doing the crimes.

This defendant ran up and kicked the Sgt. in the head, knocking him back and temporarily blinding him in the left eye - it was immediately swollen shut. Both suspects jumped on top of the Sgt. and repeatedly punched and kicked him. An elderly neighbor, gardening in her yard, witnessed the entire event and said both defendants should have been shot.
